20 Family-Friendly Hotels

Great places to take the crew—all under $300 a night!

Ruth Manuel-Logan

When I take my brood on vacation, I want it to be a Shangri-La for us all. As parents, we know that when the kids are happy, all's right with the world and we grown-folk can rest easy! After searching far and wide, I've found some really great family-friendly hot spots with prices that are pretty pocket-friendly, too. They're all under $300 a night and offer activities galore.

Horseshoe Bay Marriott

The Horseshoe Bay Resort Marriott is located amidst the expanse and charm of Texas's Hill Country. If beaches are not your thing, then opt for lush manicured waterscapes like Lake LBJ and gorgeous gardens.

Horseshoe Bay Marriott

Kids will love the Activity Center, full of games galore (currently under renovation, but reopening March 1). And the hotel recently completed the U.S. Open Champion Andy Roddick USTA Kids' Tennis Courts—a first in the U.S., specially designed for players up to age 10.
