The Family Vacation Just Got Grand at Horseshoe Bay Resort

GrandFamily Getaway Offers Fun for the Whole (Extended) Family with Two- or Three- Bedroom Villas & Waterfront Condos

Horseshoe Bay, Texas—July 10, 2008—Forty-four percent of families now take at least one trip per year with their grandparents. At Horseshoe Bay Resort in the Texas Hill Country three generations can travel and stay together with the GrandFamily Getaway featuring spacious multi-bedroom accommodations that celebrate togetherness while maintaining sanity with separate rooms to retire to. The resort's two- and three-bedroom Paseo villas and waterfront condominiums at The Waters let families play and stay together, while still giving everyone their own space and privacy. Nightly pricing starts at $460 for a two-bedroom and $690 for a three-bedroom Paseo villa, and $480 and $720 for two- and three-bedroom waterfront condos respectively at The Waters now through November 8, 2008.

Just in time for National Grandparents Day on September 7, families can experience the newly renovated Paseo villas located next to the pool and Kids' Club, complete with patios or balconies, spa tubs, separate living areas and full kitchens. Clans choosing to stay at The Waters will experience luxury amenities such as fully furnished balconies overlooking Lake LBJ, iPod docking stations, flat-screen high-definition televisions, washer/dryer unit and more. Whether the group is visiting to improve their serve, swing, or just their tan, family tree members will all find a recreational offering to enjoy ranging from golf, tennis, spa, water sports and more. The younger set can play on the nation's first USTA-sponsored kid-sized tennis courts, lower their handicap on the made-to-scale putting course, and splash in four swimming pools.
